GREAT MORVICH WINS $50,000 KENTUCKY DERBY

THREE-YEAR-OLD WONDER NEVER IN DANGER OF DEFEAT

Seventy Thousand Persons Witness Great Event at Louisville

LOUISVILLE, Ky. May 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—Morvich won the $50,000 Kentucky derby here late this afternoon before a record-break-ing crowd of 70,000 persons. Bet Mosie was second and John Finn third. The time was 2,04 2,5

The great Morvich won as he pleased and never was in danger of de ea and never was in danger of de-feat. Jockey Albert Johnson shot. Morvich into the lead at the flagpole and retained it to the finish. This was Morvich's first start as a three-year-old. He has never been beaten, having won eleven races as a two-year-old.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. May 13.—The colt they said could not run a distance ran exactly one mile and a quarter through the twilight shadows that fell across the Churchill Downs race track today and the forty-eighth running of the great Kentucky derby went down that history with derby went down into history with this same colt, Morvich, leading the pack from the first furiong pole to the last.

Slipping up through the pack from the rear came Bet Mosle, of the Bradley stable, to finish second a length and a half away with John Finn third and the much-touted agiow Deadlock fourth.

Not more than five lengths separated the winner and trailer at the finish nor elsewhere for that matter.

The time, 2 94 3-5, was fast enough without heins actually outcaseous.

Governor Morrow of this state, stood on the platform of the steward's stand and in a few graceful. ard's stand and in a few graceful words, made the throaty congratula-tions. E. R. Bradley, whose entries, Behave Yourself and Black Servant. ran "one-two" last year, saw Bot Mo-sie's wafn but gailant drive through the final furlong and then rushed down the gap to grasp the hand of Benjamin Block, who bought the ugir duckling a year ago from the Spreckles interests and never ceased to regret it.

Morvich and his owner, Ben Block

Morvich was led through the josting, eager crowd by Mr. Block and Deadlock and My Play at his fiank. Fred Burlew, his trainer, with Jockey Johnson sitting proudly in the said-die. But they couldn't get away from their hysterical mob. Swarms of men, with handsomely gowned women hanging frantically to their coat tails, fellowed heiter skeiter as small boys follow a band and so this strange and somehow incongruous procession went in the paddock gate.

follow a band and so this strange and somehow incongruous procession went in the paddock gate.

BLOSOMS IN SCRAMBLE.
There Mr. Block paused, his face aglow. Then he lifted the proverbial wreath of roses that annually adorns the derby winner's arching neck, and, separating a bandful of the blossoms threw them to the crowd. Out of that milling throng, perhaps five persons emerged friumphant with a bloom or two.

The race itself, conducted in a setting that might defy the brush of a stage artist, was hardly a race at all. It was not that Morvich won without competition, he got all of that he wanted for the full distance, but one glance at that smooth running set of equine machinery and you never gave any of the other contenders a passing thought. They were there merely as background to an epic performance, supers of the turf that moved about the leading man that he might better display his eminence. At one stage only was Morvich out of the lead and that was at the outset. Busy American got away at the pace but the thoroughbred Morvich did not permit any such trifling over a stretch of ground. At the skxteenth his went to the front and he remained there to the end, never embarrassed seriously at any time.

Stanage issued the following statement:

The Chicago White Sox promised three of our pitchers a bonus if they would defeat the Boston club, which was giving the White Sox a race for the pennant. The pitchers were Dauss, James and Mitchell. We went to Boston from Chicago and defeated the Red Sox. We later met the White Sox in Philadelphia.

75,000 PERSONS

CHICAGO, May 12 -About 75,000 persons have been made homeless and 3,500 square miles inundated in the recent Mississippi valley floods, said Marquis Eaton, chairman of the Chicago Association of Commerce Committee on Flood Relief and also chairman of the Chicago chapter of the Red Cross.

The attuation is said by Red Cross.

The situation is said by Red Cross workers to be the most serious since the Ohio river flood of 1913, and the rising waters in the Mississippi are said to have reached the highest points reported in history, covering the various affected areas with water from one to twenty feet deep.

Players are their bats, for bats are credited with Charlie Schmidt, then first-string "carrying batting averages."
